The postponed business meeting of the Hawaiian Women's Patriotic League was held yesterday morning at Arion Hall commencing at Section 1-There is hereby appropriated the further sum of Fifty Thousand 10 o'clock.

The regular President, Mrs. F. W. Macfarlane, having failed to turn up. Vice President Mrs. Jas. Campbell presided over the meeting. The attendance was as usual

The secretary, Mrs. Grace Kahalewai, also followed the example of the President and staid away. Mrs. M. Nakuina was blamed for giving out the proceedings of previous meeting, and so Mrs. Chas. K. Stillman was voted by acclamation to assume the temporary functions of secretary. The minutes of last Wednesday were read and approved. A long discussion soon followed on the much-debated memorial to U. S. Commissioner Jas. H. Blount. The former one drawn up by the President was rejected for failing to mention the name of Liliuokalani.

Several lady orators took the floor, debating as to the way and how to write a suitable memorial for presentation to the Commissioner. The one drawn up by the President seemed to be agreeable to some, but the same old women renewed their objections for several al Government of the Hawaiian reasons. One was because Liliuokalani's name was not written at the top, and the other was that the language of the memorial urging the Commissioner to press the United States Government to restore Queen Liliuokalani on the that the said Section shall read as throne of Hawaii was not imperative enough. The old women requested that the memorial should Section 7-All carriages and wagons contain expressions demanding the drawn by one or more horses or mules

The agitation in connection with the project of annexation, has accomplished a great deal in disseminating correct views as to this country in which we live. It is not by any means one of the least of the incidental blessings of this concentration of public attention that America, at least, has a true appreciation of our problems, and that henceforth we shall figure for just what we are. IN THE COUNCIL.

FRIDAY, April 14. The Executive and Advisory Councils held a meeting Friday afternoon at 2 P.M. The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved.

The Judiciary Committee pre sented a report in favor of bills recommending them to passage.

A discussion arose as to the propriety of the Government doing so much legislating. Mr. Cecil Brown and the Attorney General took the ground that the legislation in ques The report was adopted.

The Attorney General introduced a bill to repeal the 25 cents tax on playing cards. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The Judiciary Committee reported that the Holomua was incorporated under the law of 1890, which does not require the name of the editor to be published.

Mr. Emmeluth said the Star was obliged to publish the editor's name. Attorney General Smith said the Star was incorporated under the old Report received, and the Attorney General ordered to report as to what action should be taken in the case of the Holomua. The Miscellaneous Committee reported favorably or numbering the streets, with amendment as to the amounts to be charged, 50 cents and $1, for residences and business houses respectively. Laid on the table to await bill on the subject.

Mr. Damon again objected to this kind of legislation, which imposed taxes on the people. They wished a permanent form of government established first. He wished to make the people feel the necessity of annexation.

Mr. Emmeluth said that it was the first duty of the Council to consider annexation and minor matter afterwards. At a quarter to 3 o'clock the Council went into executive session.

Remarkable Violin.

Remenyi is now in Washington, digestion be bad. One and there is a great desire to see cannot have an appetite to and hear the marvelous instrument on which he plays. This instrument, the tones of which are said to be such as no human ear ever heard from any other, was ordered from Nicholas Lupot, a pupil of der. Stradivirius, whose work excelled that of his master, in 1815, and was finished in 1818. After a somewhat remarkable history it came in 1840 into the possession of Dr. Hawley, the famous Hartford collector of violins, who presented it to Remenyi in 1878. "Her Ladyship," as Remenyi calls this beloved instrument, cost Dr. Hawley about $20,000, but the price set on it by supply you. Remenyi is simply fabulous .-Wash. Star.

Did It Deliberately.

An act of brutality was witnessed yesterday afternoon on King street when an unknown individual, supposed to be either drunk or crazy, who was driving a brake, deliberately ran over a man who was doing some work on King street. Fortunately the victim was not hurt badly. A warrant is out for the heartless driver.
